

CPC № 14.2

Complete these sentences using the correct particle and an appropriate ending.

1. The research team consists ...
2. Immigrants to the UK have to contend ...
3. The headteacher would like to interest more pupils ...
4. The examinations board insists ...
5. It is essential that society should invest ...
6. The change in the law resulted ...
7. The government is keen to improve ...
8. The writer's philosophy is founded ...
9. Some critics have objected ...

Solution:

1. The research team consists of highly skilled individuals with diverse expertise.
2. Immigrants to the UK have to contend with various challenges, such as language barriers and cultural differences.
3. The headteacher would like to interest more pupils in science and technology subjects.
4. The examinations board insists on strict adherence to the rules and regulations.
5. It is essential that society should invest in renewable energy to combat climate change.
6. The change in the law resulted in a significant reduction in crime rates.
7. The government is keen to improve public transport infrastructure in major cities.
8. The writer's philosophy is founded on the principles of freedom and individualism.
9. Some critics have objected to the violent content in the new movie.